

Prayer calendar for September 2019

1 Unathi Sithole, our TWR Africa presenter, is celebrating her birthday today. Pray for good health, a closer walk with the Lord and joy in her service.

2 Today is Zanele Nxumalo's birthday. May the Lord encourage her as she serves Him in the Finance Department at TWR Africa.

3 Please pray for all the young TWR listeners across Africa who are preparing for exams, either at school or college level.

4 Juliet Oppong-Amoako is celebrating her birthday today. She serves the Lord in the Media Services Department. Pray that God continues to grant her wisdom and courage as she continues to serve Him.

5 Pray for the Global Fund Development Team; that they will persevere, even during these tough economic times.

6 Please pray for the finances of TWR listeners. In South Africa we recently experienced yet another price increase in fuel; this results in higher food prices.

7 Pray for people who translate the monthly TWR Women of Hope prayer calendar into other South African languages. Currently they are available in English, Afrikaans, German, Xhosa and Zulu.

8 Pray for much needed funds to be able to produce the Women of Hope programme in Zulu and Xhosa.

9 Pray for radio stations to air our programmes at reasonable hours to get more people to listen.

10 Pray that listeners of TWR programmes will have their needs met, be strengthened in faith and be greatly blessed in all areas of their lives – and that they get clear reception as they tune in to programme broadcasts.

11 Please pray that God will inspire and direct TWR on the best way to channel its strengths in such a way that it will bring in a great harvest of souls in West and Central Africa.

12 Praise God for TWR Africa supporters and pray that they can continue supporting the ministry financially even in these hard times.

13 Please pray for all our producing partners in Africa. Pray that God will continue to grant them zeal and the resources needed to produce programmes successfully.

14 Pray for the West African Transmitting Station (WATS), that God will continue to bless the team responsible for the smooth running of this station, granting them continuous grace in their selfless sacrifice to proclaim the Word of God in West and Central Africa.

15 Pray for additional funding needed for existing and new programmes at TWR in Zimbabwe.

16 Pray that God will open more opportunities for VOC (Voice of the Church), TWR national partner in Swaziland to air its programmes on local FM stations.

17 Pray for the continuation of the Litala Iya Umi (The Way of Life) programme airing from the TWR transmitting station in Swaziland and thank God for listener responses.

18 Pray for our various producers, that God's grace will abound more and more upon their lives, and for God's divine security upon their families.

19 Pray that more people in Burundi will tune in to TWR programmes to receive messages of hope and salvation.

20 Praise God for the smooth programme broadcasts in Eswatini.

21 Eberhard Haberkorn, TWR-KZN Office Manager (Africa), is celebrating his birthday today. Please pray that God will sustain and keep him as he fulfills many duties in his service at TWR.

22 Continue to pray for rain in all the drought-stricken areas in southern Africa.

23 Please pray that the programmes aired to Nigeria, through our new Oasis Transmitter, will bear lasting fruit in the lives of listeners by drawing souls to God.

24 Today is Heritage Day in South Africa and it presents an opportunity for South Africans to reconnect and recommit themselves to develop a better South Africa and a better world. Pray for TWR Africa ministry as it broadcasts indigenous programmes throughout the continent.

25 Pray for leaders in Africa to educate policy makers, media personnel, employers, and society concerning the value of women and baby girls so that harmful cultural practices will change.

26 As schools in South Africa close for the third semester break, ask the Lord to protect those who are travelling. As people have time to listen to TWR programmes during the holidays, may their lives be changed.

27 Please pray for women in West and Central Africa, especially for disabled women, to find hope, dignity, personal safety, acceptance, and love in communities that consider these women to be cursed by God.

28 Continue to pray for funds needed to run the TWR Africa ministry.

29 Please pray for TWR's partner in Mozambique, RTM (Radio Trans Mundial), that God continues to provide for the required resources to grow the ministry to bring hope to the people of this country.

30 Please pray for the broadcasting of TTB Twi in Kumasi, Ghana, that God will continue to use this programme to revolutionise lives in that region; that people will continue to be built up in their faith and love for our Lord Jesus.

Keeping prayer handy

Prayer is one of the greatest privileges, and yet most of us wish we were better at it. Now when you say "I'll pray for you!" you can make sure you follow it up.

PrayerMate is a very useful, practical cellphone application that helps you be faithful in prayer.
