

1 Today is World AIDS Day, a day that opens doors to opportunities for people globally to unite in the fight against HIV/Aids, to show support for people living with HIV. Please pray for the presentation of TWR health radio programmes, which include educational messages on healthy lifestyle.

2 Jacky Robus, serving in the Media Services department, is celebrating her birthday. Ask God to enfold her with strength, courage and knowledge as she serves the Lord faithfully.

3 Pray for TWR Africa Fund Development Priority Projects for 2020 and the planning and provision needed.

4 Pray for funds to start Women of Hope programme production in more African countries such as Burundi, Rwanda, Malawi, Eswatini, Zimbabwe and Lesotho.

5 Pray for Petros Gwala, Zulu Ministry Director, and his team as they reach out to FM stations in KwaZulu Natal, South Africa to broadcast TWR programmes.

6 Today is Verona Schiele's birthday. Please pray that God will grant her wisdom and strength as she continues to assist the TWR German ministry by preparing CDs and DVDs for distribution in southern Africa.

7 Please pray for Namibian listeners of the Afrikaans Thru the Bible programme "Die Bybel vir Vandag", which is broadcast from Channel 7 in Namibia. Pray that lives will be changed and that believers will grow in their faith.

8 Pray for people's safety while travelling during the upcoming festive season in Africa.

9 Many TWR Africa listeners are suffering financially as the economies of their countries weaken. Some ask for prayer as they have no food to provide for their children. Pray that God may make a way for them to not give up hope.

10 Pray for protection and safety for school children in Africa as they will be on their year-end school break for the summer holidays.

11 We bless the Lord for His grace upon TWR ministry globally throughout 2019. Pray for TWR Africa staff as they take time off from work to spend the holidays with their families.

12 Today is Emmanuel Sibisi's birthday. We thank God for his diligence in maintaining and caring for the gardens and grounds at the TWR office in Botha's Hill, KZN.

13 Pray for safety and protection for the engineers, technicians and staff at the TWR West Africa transmitter station as they maintain the towers, equipment and grounds.

14 Please pray for TWR staff and their family members in TWR's West and Central Africa region, that God will protect, encourage and strengthen them to extend the reach in the region.

15 Please pray for God to unite intercessors in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) by forming TWR Women of Hope prayer groups on WhatsApp.

16 Praise God for progress in TWR West Africa ministries in Freetown in Sierra Leone, Monrovia in Liberia; Kumasi and Accra in Ghana. Testimonies of the transforming power of the Gospel are coming in daily from these fields. Please pray that these fruits will remain.

17 Pray for the people in Africa who are coming to Christ, that they may in turn win others to the Kingdom of God.

18 Pray for God's intervention on the Zimbabwean economy, and for funding for continued production and broadcasting in the Shona language.

19 Anthony Barkhuizen, our Fund Development Manager, is celebrating his birthday today. Ask God to enfold him with strength, courage and knowledge as he continues to build relationships with donors and potential donors.

20 Pray for West and Central Africa, who needs the Gospel now more than ever. Pray that God will inspire and direct TWR to channel its strength in such a way that it will bring in a great harvest of souls.

21 Pray for TWR Africa partner and production offices that face challenges such as power outages, internet shut down by government, etc.

22 Please pray that God will protect TWR listeners in Nigeria and grant them grace and favour in all their endeavours.

23 Praise God for the successful free medical outreach embarked upon by the Women of Hope in Rivers State, Nigeria, early this year as it opened great doors of opportunities to ministry in the state, to the point that the local authorities have pledged to participate in their programmes!

24 Siphon Mahlangu is celebrating his birthday today. Please pray for strength and guidance from God as he serves in the TWR Africa IT Department.

25 It is Christmas day and we remember the birth of Jesus, our Saviour. Pray that people who feel lonely and forsaken, will find hope and comfort through TWR's special Christmas broadcasts. Lydia Phiri, TWR Africa Janitor, also celebrates her birthday on this special day! Please pray that God will shower her with His grace and love throughout the next year.

26 Pray for the issuing of the FM licence that TWR applied for in Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire, so that more people can hear TWR broadcasts in and around the city.

27 TWR Africa Marketing and Communications Manager, Marietjie Prollius is celebrating her birthday today. Ask God to enfold her with strength, courage and knowledge as she continues to serve Him at TWR.

28 Praise God as Facebook activities give strong indications that Nigerians are eagerly looking forward to the enlargement of TWR activities in their country.

29 Praise God for the successful installation of the TWR Oasis transmitter. Pray that God will prepare the hearts of listeners to receive the Good News of salvation in Jesus through programmes scheduled for broadcast from the new transmitter.

30 Pray for constant vigilance for all those who are on the battlefield in West Africa as the fight against Christian ministry has even become physical in some places: fierce and destructive fire, kidnapping, accidents, assault and battery, threats in various places like Burkina Faso, Mali, Mauritania, Niger and Nigeria.

31 As we approach the closing of 2019, we praise God for protecting and preserving our lives and for allowing TWR Africa to reach millions of people with the Gospel of Jesus through our media ministry this past year.
